BROWN & MURPHY

FRANK BROWN ROB MURPHY

"A HELPING HAND."

Is Gladly Extended By A Barre Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Barre prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

Mr. C. A. Churchill, 40 Merchant street, the well known builder and contractor says: "For two years I suffered a great deal from a steady pain across my back. I could not keep still but a short time when it became almost unbearable. In the morning when I got up I felt lame and sore and had to make quite an effort to dress myself. I procured a good deal and used a great many medicines but without receiving much benefit until Doan's Kidney Pills were so persistently recommended to me by a friend that I got a box at E. A. Drown & Co.'s, No. 48 North Main St., Barre, Vt. I must confess that I had little confidence in them, but I was relieved. I took five or six boxes all told. My back was stronger and better than it was for a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best medicine I ever used and I am glad to testify to their merits."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

At the Wrong Shop.
Patient—The trouble with me is that I can't sleep. Yet I am always as hungry as a wolf and work like a horse.
Doctor—You had better consult a veterinarian.—New York Times.

A Sure Thing.
"I wonder if he knows my sister has money."
"Has he proposed?"
"He has."
"He does."—New York Herald.

Dyspepsia—bane of human existence. Burdock Blood Bitters cures it, promptly, permanently. Regulates and tones the stomach.

Gets the Benefit.
"They ain't no two ways about it, Mistah Jackson," said Charcoal Eph as he passed the shop, "we'n er woman mahries er man fo' bettah or fo' worse she mouty soon fin' out she gettin' de benefit ob de alternative."—Baltimore News.

Sleep.
According to a somewhat cynical old proverb, the need of nightly sleep is just due to average human beings should thus be distributed: "Six hours to a man, seven to a woman and eight to a fool."

READY TO YIELD.
"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles and found it a certain cure," says S. R. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They always yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cures skin diseases, all kinds of wounds. Accept no counterfeits. E. A. Drown & Co.

Hardly an Encore.
A quartet was giving a concert before the patients of an insane hospital and was singing a number to a rather mournful cadence and a subdued refrain. The audience, with the best of good humor, such as invariably characterizes the audiences at this particular hospital, heard it to the bitter end, and when its last note had died away an old lady with a virtuous and dignified air of reconciliation on her face popped suddenly up out of the audience and, turning toward the stage, said reverently, "O Lord, forgive them, for they know not what they do!"

LEADS THEM ALL
"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Currin of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. E. A. Drown & Co.

Rheumatism.
If you suffer from rheumatism, buy a little flowers of sulphur and sprinkle it well into the feet of a pair of stockings, which you must wear at night. The sulphur is quickly absorbed into the system through the feet, and, as every one knows, sulphur is the remedy for rheumatism.

A REAL FRIEND.
"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. E. A. Drown & Co.

The Lost Atlantis.
"The Lost Atlantis" is a favorite subject of song and story, and even now strange tales are told by sailors who claim to have seen a great white city rearing its domes and minarets up through the green of the sea. Atlantis was a continental island between Europe and America. Solon, as long ago as 600 B. C., learned the story in Egypt, and it is from him and later from Plato that the tale has been handed down to modern peoples.

Atlantis was reigned over by three kings of marvelous power, and the inhabitants were a warlike people far advanced in civilization. The three kings finally became so puffed with power that they united forces and planned a descent on Europe, the purpose of which was to destroy and enslave. The Athenians met the invaders and after a fearful battle gained a decisive victory. Two days later mighty earthquakes shook the earth, and tremendous inundations came. When peace succeeded elemental turmoil, the sea stretched where once had been Atlantis.

Gotham.
Gotham, New York's alias, was originally applied to the Manhattan town in derision, doubtless because of some foolishness on the part of its people. "The Merry Tales of the Mad Men of Gotham" was a collection of satirical tales written in the fifteenth century by one Andrew Borde, a Carthusian monk. Gotham was a village near Nottingham, and the fame of the "Wise Men of Gotham" soon traveled the world over. Doubtless Henry VIII. imagined that Borde was taking a sly fling at him, for he imprisoned the hapless writer in the Tower, where only death released him.

Is it a burn? Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At your druggist.

Japanese Cats and Dogs.
Japanese cats have the shortest kinds of tails or else none at all. One of these cats, on being taken to a European town, refused companionship with the long tailed cats there; but, finding a cat whose tail had been cut off by accident, the two became friendly at once.

Japanese dogs are almost destitute of noses, having the nostrils set directly in the head. The smaller the nose the more valuable the breed.

Everybody's liable to itching piles. Rich and poor, old and young—terrible the torture they suffer. Only one sure cure: Doan's Ointment. Absolutely safe; can't fail.

Points of Difference.
A young heiress with a penchant for farming was explaining at length the many difficulties she encountered in pursuing her fad. "I really am a farmer," she protested, and then added regretfully, "although it must be confessed that almost all I plant I lose."

"Therein differing from me," courteously rejoined her table companion, a rising young physician, "for I find in my case that all I lose I plant."

Three spectres that threaten baby's life. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry never fails to conquer them.

Marriage Rings in Denmark.
The maidens of Denmark never receive a diamond engagement ring. They are always presented with a plain gold band, which is worn on the third finger of the left hand. On the wedding day the bridegroom changes the ring to the right third finger, which is the marriage finger in that country.

SPRING FEVER
Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Mouldsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." E. A. Drown & Co.

Man Eating Wild Men.
In the celebrated "Travels" of Edward Webb (1590) are dozens of stories that would make Munchausen turn green with envy. One of the most celebrated of these is his story of the wild men of Prester John, which is as follows:
"In the court of Prester John there is a wild man and another in the high street of Constantinople whose allowance is every day a quarter of raw mutton, and when any man dyeth for some notorious offence then they are allowed every day a quarter of man's flesh. These wild men are chained fast to a post every day, the one in Prester John's court, the other in the high street of Constantinople, each of them having a mantel about their shoulders, and all over their bodies they have wonderful long hair. They are chained by the neck lest they speedily devour all that cometh within their reach."

BIDS WANTED.
